Question:	Places of uniqueness and character and community are disappearing in this city.....we will be a place where people sleep, expensively, in cookie cutter condo's, we hold jobs. City People's Nursery in the Madison Valley is a place of community. It will be gone soon, to build another expensive, non-descript condo and yet huge, and will destroy trees and foliage on the hillside. Why not a smaller building, with room for a beautiful nursery in the ground floor? It is more than sad... way to keep a beautiful respite of learning, nature, gardening, side by side with a condo? Your part of the Dept. of Neighborhoods could really spawn some of
