Notice of Errata contained in Friends of Ravenna-Cowen's Response to City's Closing Brief

Dear Examiner Vancil:

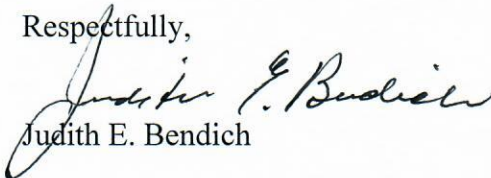

Typing and word-processing are not among my better abilities, and I wish to point out a few typos in Friends of Ravenna-Cowen's Response, which was filed yesterday.

1. Mr. Thaler's name is misspelled at p. 2, line 23, and Mr. Wentlandt's name is misspelled at footnote 43, p. 21. My apologies to both.
2. The word "principal" at p. 20, line 14 and at p. 23, line 3, should be principle."
3. Footnote 17, at line 25, which says, "E.b.," should be E.g.

There are a few more missing periods, and a hyphen that shouldn't be there, but I am not including these here.

This letter is being contemporaneously sent to all parties.

Respectfully,

Judith E. Bendich
