

City of Seattle

Office of Hearing Examiner

Sue A. Tanner, Hearing Examiner

Anne Watanabe, Deputy Hearing examiner

November 6, 2013

IMPORTANT APPEAL INFORMATION

The adequacy of the Environmental Impact Statement issued by the Director, Department of Planning and Development, regarding the Land Use Text Amendments for Micro-Housing and Congregate Residences and Determination of Non-Significance has been appealed by Dennis Saxman, et al. An appeal hearing on this matter (Hearing Examiner File W-13-008) is scheduled for TUESDAY, JANUARY 7, 2014, BEGINNING AT 9:00 a.m., in the Office of Hearing Examiner on the 40th Floor, Seattle Municipal Tower, Suite 4000, 700 5th Avenue. This hearing is open to the public, but only the parties to the appeal and persons called as witnesses will have an opportunity to testify.

Prior to hearing, the parties are encouraged to acquaint themselves with the hearing process and the issues being appealed. The Hearing Examiner can base a decision only on the facts presented at hearing, in light of what the City's laws require or allow. You need to be prepared to present information that supports your view. The Office of Hearing Examiner has a booklet entitled "Public Guide to Appeals and Hearings Before the Hearing Examiner" that explains the hearing process and provides helpful information and suggestions for those participating in hearings. Please contact the Office or visit our website to get this booklet and to get the Hearing Examiner Rules, which govern the conduct of hearings. The Hearing Examiner website is www.seattle.gov/examiner/.

When a party writes to the Hearing Examiner requesting something, (these requests are also called "motions"), it is important that the other parties comment in writing to the Hearing Examiner. If the Hearing Examiner does not receive a response from the other parties within 7 days of the date the Examiner receives the motion, it can be assumed that they agree with the request. (The Public Guide explains this and other procedural items.)

Whenever you write to the Hearing Examiner about the appeal, you must also send a copy of that correspondence to each of the other parties. Party representatives in this matter are:

Appellant

Dennis Saxman, et al.
1020 E. Denny Way, #15
Seattle, WA 98122
(206) 328-5326
peregrine@isomedia.com

Department

Bill Mills
Geoff Wentlandt
DPD
700 5TH AVENUE, SUITE 2000
SEATTLE, WA 98104-5070
Geoffrey.wentlandt@seattle.gov
William.mills@seattle.gov

Please contact this Office (684-0521) if you have questions regarding the appeal process.