[As this document was filed on Dec. 16, 2013 in paper form only, we are today (Jan. 2, 2013) without change, adding it to the electronic record.]

The Appellants plan to call the following witnesses:

William Mills, Department of Planning and Development, to testify regarding the preparation of the Determination of Nonsignificance, and various matters regarding microhousing of which he has knowledge. I anticipate my questioning and his testimony will require approximately three (3) hours.

Geoffrey Wentlandt, Department of Planning and Development, to testify regarding the preparation of the Determination of Nonsignificance, and various matters regarding microhousing of which he has knowledge. I anticipate my questioning and his testimony will require an entire day of the hearing.

Mike Podowski, Department of Planning and Development, to testify regarding the preparation of the Determination of Nonsignificance, microhousing project monitoring, the preparation of the microhousing tracking list, and various matters regarding microhousing of which he has knowledge. I anticipate my questioning and his testimony will require approximately two (2) hours.

Jon Siu, Department of Planning and Development, to testify regarding the preparation of the Determination of Nonsignificance to the extent that he was involved, on consideration of impact on need for public services, especially fire protection, and various matters regarding microhousing of which he has knowledge. I anticipate my questioning and his testimony will require approximately two (2) hours.

Jennifer Pettyjohn, Department of Planning and Development, to testify regarding the preparation of the Determination of Nonsignificance, especially as it relates to development capacity analysis under the Zoned Development Capacity Model and to testify as to how the Zoned Development Capacity Model works. I anticipate my questioning and her testimony will require one and a half (1.5) hours.

Respectfully submitted,

Dennis Saxman
